Treasurer's Reports for April 30, 2019:

The reports were not available at this time.

Director's Report:

1. Vacant Apartments- There is one open apartment at Ashland Manor. It is prepared for rental and we anticipate it being rented in June. There are not open apartments at McCluggage Manor.
2. New Facility- Paul Brycki has been in contact with Susan Bysiewicz and the State Department of Housing. Paul Brycki is requesting a meeting with the Commissioner of the Department of Housing.

Any Old Business:

1. Policy Violations- The state police were called to Kathleen Colletti's apartment regarding a "peeping Tom."
2. Baude & Bolfe PC- Paul Brycki is working with the new auditor.
3. Bernadette Schmidt vs. Griswold Housing Authority- Paul Brycki is working with the insurance company and the attorney on the case.

Any New Business:

1. New Phone system: We are going forward with Verizon Wireless. Paul Brycki is working on linking the alarm system to Verizon as well.

Public Forum: Kathleen Colletti brought up that the issue with the "peeping Tom" still exists. Paul Brycki suggested that she call the Resident State Trooper of Jewett City.

Any Other Business Properly Coming before the Authority

None.
